

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

When is the warming hut open?

The warming hut at Dakota Ridge is open from dawn until dusk, seven days a week for the winter season. No food services are provided so pack in and out what you need.

Can I ski with my dog?

Dogs are not permitted on most of the ski trails for safety reasons. However, there is a 1.5 kilometre trail open to dogs for the winter season. Dogs must be under control at all times. Dogs are permitted on snowshoe trails and must be under control at all times.

Where do I get lunch, water, or a snack?

Food facilities are not available at Dakota Ridge. You must bring all of your food, water and snacks with you. Please remember to pack out your garbage.

Can I snowshoe on the cross country ski trails?

For safety reasons, and to avoid deep snowshoe imprints on the cross country ski track set, snowshoes are not allowed. There are designated and marked snowshoe trails

Can I walk on the cross country ski trails?

Walking is not permitted on the ski trails as it can be hazardous to skiers and it has a serious impact on the trails.

How can I find out daily conditions?

Regular updates can be found by calling the SCRD Parks Dept at 604-885-6802 (Press 5) Monday to Friday.