Roundtable

- The dangerous driving in Pender Harbour and other areas was discussed. Director Mauro noted the stunt driving may cause an accident. The RCMP will have extra patrols during summer.

Director Mauro asked about the relaxation of BC liquor laws and the RCMP noted they will enforce the laws as written. He also commended the RCMP for the excellent job done at a recent community meeting on Keats Island.

- Director Shugar asked if the RCMP will take over when the Bylaw Officer is off duty regarding noise issues. S/Sgt Berdahl noted that if there is loud music or beach parties it is appropriate to call 9-1-1 who will prioritize the call for members to attend.
- S/Sgt Berdahl noted there will be extra policing during the summer months, with extra members on weekends.

- Joyce Clegg noted there have been vehicle break-ins at the Langdale parking lot to vehicles from Gambier Island (noting these vehicles have Gambier parking passes on them). This had been reported to the RCMP. S/Sgt Berdahl stated they will follow up.
- Alternate Director Doug Hockley noticed a number of vehicles going through the red light westbound at Highway 101 and Norwest Bay Road. S/Sgt Berdahl noted the RCMP will continue to patrol the area.
- Director Tretick stated that Sea Cavalcade is coming up. The RCMP have their operations plan in place.
- Garry Nohr, SCRD Chair thanked S/Sgt Berdahl and Paul Fenwick for their service to the Sunshine Coast. He thanked them for their solid attendance at the Policing Committee and wished them a great retirement.
- Cavin Crawford, COPS stated he has noticed some very aggressive drivers on the Highway.
- Lorne Lewis, Policing Committee Chair, thank S/Sgt Berdahl for his participation on this committee.
- S/Sgt Berdahl said he has enjoyed his participation on the Policing Committee and that it has been a real benefit with meaningful dialogue. Sgt. Mike McCarthy is acting as his temporary replacement until a new S/Sgt is in place.
- Lorne Lewis, Policing Committee Chair thanked Paul Fenwick for his participation on the Committee whether in small or big issues. He wished him a happy retirement.
