Open Day this Sunday at Roberts Creek Fire Hall

Sechelt, BC – September 29, 2021 – If you're in Xwesam / Roberts Creek this Sunday then be sure to truck on down to Roberts Creek Fire Hall for an open day being organized by local volunteer firefighters. The event marks the beginning of Fire Prevention Week which runs from October 3rd to October 9th.

At the event this Sunday, the community will get the opportunity to;

- Meet and greet local volunteer firefighters, learn more about their experience and what life is like in the Fire Department
- Meet local FireSmart representatives to learn about steps you can take to keep your home safe in the event of a wildfire occurring in the Region
- Learn about how you can become a volunteer firefighter on the Sunshine Coast
- Check out some of the equipment in the Fire Hall

"Events like this are a great opportunity for us to connect directly with our community and share important fire safety advice," says Sean Hatanaka, Roberts Creek Volunteer Fire Department Deputy Chief. "We are excited to welcome our community to the Roberts Creek Fire Hall for a day of learning and fun for all ages."

The event will take place Sunday, October 3rd from 10am to 2pm at Roberts Creek Fire Hall, 1302 Roberts Creek Road.
